360 Canco Road, Portland, ME 04103

- Dozens of Ministries & Christian Business owners & Professionals
- Informational & Inspirational Workshops • Networking Opportunities
- AWESOME Fellowship - Like A Family Reunion!

An outstanding opportunity for exhibitors such as Christian schools, camps, conference centers, music ministries, and business owners, to name just a few.

In one day, personally reach more Christians than you could in months!!

New features for 2010

- 1. Admission to Connecting Point 2010 is FREE. (A freewill offering will be received during the morning and afternoon workshop sessions to help defray expenses.)
- 2. The event has been moved to late March. In order to avoid school vacations, competing events and “too good” weather.
- 3. The event will offer door prizes from exhibitors to draw more attendees. We hope to promote up to $3,000 in give-aways. Exhibitors can use their creativity in providing these. Business can provide a product or service with a value of $100 for prize drawings. Ministries may have a sponsor donate such a service or product.
- 4. The Andrew Principle. As we know from the Bible, Andrew brought others to Jesus – his brother, Peter; the boy with 5 loaves and 2 fish; and a group of Gentiles.

We're asking each Maine-based exhibitor that signs up if they would commit to inviting and following up with at least 10 others. This is critical to the success of the event. We have the potential of doubling or tripling attendance if we are faithful in this area.

- 5. User Friendly Seminars. Our seminar rooms will be closer to our exhibitors, facilitating more flow through the area. Seminars will be FREE, however as noted above, a freewill offering will be received during the morning and afternoon workshop sessions to help defray expenses.
- 6. Networking with Pastors/Churches. We will step up our contact with churches and pastors working to help make Connecting Point a “household name” among them. We will encourage announcements from the pulpit and bulletin inserts in anticipation of the event.
